Spy's coursing career spanned an amazing 11 years. In 2000 Spy competed at the Grand National and placed 4th in the FCh Class. Spy ran in 10 II's, placing 1st in Veterans stake in 2004 and 2007 (at the age of 10). Spy's coursing career took both he and Les on an amazing journey to just about every ASFA region. I remember standing with Les on the last course Spy did – Spy did not win that day but Les said, with tears in his eyes, "I love watching a good dog run!" ... Spy was a GOOD dog.
