Biography: Provide a brief biography of this hound. Limit 250 words. Biography written by: Laurie Soutar

In addition to her coursing and racing accomplishments, Maddie excelled in everything she tried, and she tried a lot! She was top ranked in multiple sports, and earned titles in conformation, obedience, rally, agility, weight pull, dog sport (protection), draft dog (carting), and was the first Greyhound to earn titles in several of those sports. She earned a total of 70 titles in her lifetime, most of them Championships. She was featured on the cover of CKC's official magazine, Dogs in Canada, and had a long career as a Jrs dog in conformation, with my granddaughter, Caitlyn.

She won the Whitetail Invitational (open field) twice, the only time that has ever happened. She won the Canadian National Specialty AND Specialty Field Trial (the only time that has ever happened). In 2004, she finished #1 on Dec 31 at Dean's trial in PA, we left the trial and drove to NY to participate in the first ever AKC rally trial, starting at midnight, where she competed in 3 back-to-back trials to become one of the first rally titled Greyhounds.

She is one of only 6 Greyhounds to be titled in conformation, lure coursing, and racing (the Key Club). She was #1 in ASFA twice (2003 & 2004). She is #2 on the ASFA Lifetime Top 20, behind her grandmother, Denim. In conformation, she won Best Veteran in show for the first time in 2006, and the last time in 2013, at the age of 13. She ran in her last competitive trial two weeks before her 11th birthday, but ran her last practice in 2013, at the age of 13.

Her only litter of puppies produced multiple DC dogs, including specialty winners, a Lifetime Top 20 dog, and her legacy continues through her granddaughter Blueberry, who is also a #1 ASFA dog.

She was a joy to live and travel with, enthusiastic about everything we tried, and enriched our lives in so many ways. Her nickname of 'MadDog' came from her screaming and yammering whenever she could see or hear a lure, and her single-minded determination to get the bunny.
