What is a "Grand Slam" you ask?

The Region 8 Grand Slam is a competition for each breed on a specific weekend of trials in Region 8 designated by each club. Both days of our Regional Invitational will be the last event for this competition. Bowen Points will be awarded at each trial in the normal matter. The hound of each breed that has entered a minimum of 60% of these GRAND SLAM trials with the highest number of Bowen Points will be that breed's winner. Hounds do not have to reside in Region 8 to compete. The winning hound of each breed will receive a Grille Plate designating your hound as the winner plus a framed certificate so stating, to be presented at the Regional 8 trial.
