These Eastern Seaboard trials were conceived to provide a true test of our hounds' agility, speed and endurance on two separate course plans, each with a specific challenge. At the end of the two trials we will know the fastest, most agile, and enduring hound in each breed. They will be awarded the Breed Grande Prix Challenge Cups. All Breed Challenge Cup Winners will then be eligible to compete for the Best in Grande Prix Elimination Trophy.

RULES

A HOUND MUST COMPETE ON BOTH DAYS TO WIN A GRANDE PRIX BREED CHALLENGE CUP

The Breed Challenge Cup Winner will be the hound that wins Best of Breed on both days. If the same hound does not win BOB both days, then the winner will be determined by a run-off between the BOB winner from each day, and also the hound which defeated the most hounds in its breed over the two days without winning a BOB. The Breed Challenge Cups are silver champagne coolers which honor the outstanding lure coursing hounds in each breed. They are retired to any owner who wins one three times.

All judges will judge the Grande Prix Perpetual Trophy elimination run(s) (if possible). A random draw will determine courses. Hounds winning each course will re-compete, until the Grande Prix Perpetual Trophy Winner is determined via elimination.

IN EVENT OF ANY RULES DISPUTE, FINAL DECISION SHALL BE AT THE DISCRETION OF THE FTS
