ASFA OPERATIONAL POLICIES
Revised through December 2007

Numbers = policy number, rulebook chapter, section, paragraph
Dates = date established/revised, date published (year/month), first date approved (if known), first date published (if known)

Established

5.The ASFA logo shall not be used for any commercial venture without prior approval of the Board of Directors. Apr 96 R

8.Upon request, one set of free forms will be mailed to a club or individual per year and one "promotional packet" will be mailed to a club or organization per year. The forms committee is empowered to make exceptions to this policy upon request from the Regional Director and as it deems appropriate. Apr 94 R

10.ASFA's reciprocity with CKC is limited to recognized judges. Apr-84

23.12.When a field representative is evaluating a trial and is aware of rule infractions, he/she shall advise the field chairman of the irregularity and show written documentation of the rule or policy in question.If no corrective action is taken, the field representative shall file a protest, following all procedures of Chapter 9, including appeal of the field committee's ruling, if appropriate. Apr 94 R

24.2.One person cannot be both field chairman & field secretary at a trial. . Apr 94 R

26.1.1.A hound must be individually registered, but proof of ownership is not required unless specifically requested by the Records Coordinator. Apr 94 R

27.1.1.1.When the Records Coordinator receives an entry with an unacceptable registration number, the Records Coordinator will advise the owner that points, placements and titles earned and FAN publication of same, will be held in abeyance for a maximum period of 90 days.During that pending period, the hound will be listed in FAN trial results as "pending".If the owner submits an acceptable registration number to the Records Coordinator within the time allowed the hound will be credited with points/placements/titles earned in the interim.

If an owner fails to notify the Records Coordinator of a hound's acceptable registration number within the 90-day pending period, all points, placements and/or titles earned during that period will be void.There will be no effect on other hounds' points/placements if a correction is not made or if the entry is disallowed. Nov-88

29.1.1.AKC recognized foreign registry has been interpreted to include those registries appearing in the "primary" or "secondary" AKC listing. Apr-91

30.1.5.The Board has interpreted the term "policies" to mean enforceable items. Nov-89

31.2.1.6.Upon request from an individual whose entries have been refused, the Corresponding Secretary will notify the club filing "good and sufficient" reasons that they have 10 days to withdraw or alter the statements prior to the statements being sent registered mail (addressee only) to the affected individual. Nov-83

33.2.4.If the club and/or judge decrees a limitation on calling to hounds in a course, this limitation shall be announced by the huntmaster prior to each preliminary run. Apr-86

34.2.2. A hound which has been measured "out" by an AKC recognized club will not be considered automatically "out" at ASFA trials. Apr-83

35.2.6.2.An inspection committee member who is an entrant may be allowed to determine whether his/her competitors' hounds are lame or in season at the discretion of the field committee. Apr-86

36.2.6.2.Hounds with fewer than four legs are considered lame and, therefore, unfit to compete. Apr-90

37.2.6.c.Each field champion to be measured must be individually identified. Nov-89

38.3.The ASFA Board of Directors considers it inappropriate for a judge to copy any information from a record sheet relative to his/her assignment prior to completion of that assignment. Nov-88

39.2.7.1.It is unacceptable for a club to change a judge's assignment on the day of the trial in order to allow that judge to run a hound. Nov-89

41.3.9.A pre-slip penalty may be called by the huntmaster and thereby a penalty will be assessed by a judge: 1) at the beginning of the course, and/or 2) during a mid-field restart of the same course. Nov 95r

42. 3. 14. The word "fighting" as a reason for disqualification does not require defense from the other hound. Oct-82

45.4.3.3.Clubs that fail to submit a final premium list to the Scheduling Chairman will be notified that failure to comply with the rule may lead to a delay in publication of the trial results. Apr 94 R

46.4.3.3.The Scheduling Chairman may, upon approval of the President, withhold future trial approval from a club that has substantially altered an approved sample premium list until the Board can review and act on the issue.This will not affect the premium list and trial that is in question. Apr-83

47.4.3.5.ASFA has no jurisdiction over items in flyers mailed with premium lists. Jan-82

48.4.3.5.If BIF does not follow standard procedure, the information regarding this stake shall be published in a flyer separate from the body of the premium list and results of this stake shall not be published in the trial results section of FAN. Jan-82

49.4.3.7.The 150 mile separation policy applies to sanctioned all-breed trials and specialty event trials of the same breeds.One club cannot hold more than one trial on the same day within a 150-mile radius. Apr 97 R

50.4.3.8.ASFA shall adopt the AKC corresponding date table for determining priority dates. Mar 04 R

51.4.3.8.A club may not have more than 8 trials on the schedule at any one time nor hold priority to more than six days or three weekends in a year. . Apr 94 R

52.4.4.CKC licensed judges residing in Canada are recognized to judge at ASFA sanctioned events.Judges residing in the U.S. must have a current ASFA license to judge at ASFA sanctioned events. CKC judges must be licensed for any breed they judge for the ASFA. However, all-breed CKC judges shall be considered all-breed ASFA judges for ASFA purposes. Mar 04 R

53.4.4.CKC licensed judges residing in Canada are recognized to judge at ASFA certification courses.Judges residing in the U.S. must have a current ASFA license to judge certification courses. Apr 94 R

56.5.5.a.When a stake of hounds exceeds 20 hounds, the number shall be split into as many stakes of ten as is possible.Any.remaining hounds shall be added to these stakes evenly. The number of hounds in split stakes should always be within one hound of all others and always equal to or greater than ten. Oct-92

57.5.5.c.Roll call ends at the beginning of the draw, but not prior to the published time. Apr-82

58.5.7.3.Except for the exception in Chapter.V, Section 7.3, split stakes must be by random draw. Nov-83

294.VII.1.Policy on Field Trial Records Errors Correction

1. Errors Discovered After the Trial and Before Records Are Submitted to the Records Coordinator:
  - a. The Field Trial Secretary should check trial records carefully after the trial for any errors, before submitting the records packet to the Records Coordinator.
  - b. The Field Trial Secretary must report any errors found to the Records Coordinator.
  - c. The Field Trial Secretary must correct any errors found before sending in the records. This includes:
    - Notifying owners in writing of any errors that affect their hound's placement.
    - Sending copies of such notification to the Records Coordinator with the records packet.
    - Sending unsigned judge's sheets and/or entry forms back to the appropriate person to be signed.
  - d. Errors on judge's sheets may not be corrected after trial hours are over, but the Field Trial Secretary must notify the Records Coordinator of these errors.
  - e. Field Trial Secretaries who catch and correct errors prior to submitting their records to the Records Coordinator will not be given an Error Notice for their club.
  - f. Field Trial Secretaries are encouraged to contact the Records Coordinator with any questions or problems before sending in the records packet.
2. Errors Discovered by the Records Coordinator Before Publication in FAN:
  - a. The Records Coordinator will contact the Field Trial Secretary with instructions on how to handle the errors correction. It will be the responsibility of the Field Trial Secretary to correct the errors, for example notifying owners of hounds whose points and placements were affected by the error.
  - b. Depending on the severity of the error(s), the Records Coordinator may issue an Error Notice for the club.
3. Errors Discovered After the Trial Records Are Published in FAN
  - a. Results of field trials published in FAN will not be changed except by action of the Board. Such action may be taken by email ballot distributed by the Corresponding Secretary. Such corrections will be limited to errors brought to the Records Coordinator's attention within 60 days of the publication of the trial records in FAN. Apr-00 R

295.VIII.1.Hounds disqualified by any other lure coursing organization shall be considered disqualified by the ASFA. Apr-99

296.IX.1.No club or individual may have their ASFA privileges suspended, except through the procedures outlined in Article 9 of the ASFA Constitution. (For the purpose of this policy, suspension or revocation of a judge's license for cause is not regarded as a suspension of ASFA privileges and should be handled as provided for in Chapter 11, Section 12 of the Running Rules.) In such cases where the Board believes that there is good evidence that an individual or club has engaged in misconduct prejudicial to the best interests of the ASFA or any or all breeds of sighthounds and no club or individual has filed charges, they [the Board] shall vote to entertain jurisdiction of the matter and instruct the Corresponding Secretary to prepare written charges with specification of the alleged misconduct, along with evidence of such misconduct. Such charges shall then be distributed to the Board as specified in Article 9, Section 1 and shall be handled as required in that article once the Board has voted to entertain jurisdiction. Apr-99

297.If a hound or person nominated to the Hall of Fame is not elected, they shall automatically be placed on the ballot for the following year. If the hound or person is not elected in their second year on the ballot, the nomination process must be repeated to place them on the ballot again. Apr-99
